

Security & Access Control Systems

From door swipes and building access controls, to video recorders and network-enabled cameras, Cabco can help you protect your property or job site from theft and liability with the latest surveillance, access controls and security systems.

You can trust Cabco's team of trained security systems technicians to install and support the right solution for your business needs, while also integrating it with the rest of your communications network.

Experience counts. Choose Cabco.

PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY

- Door Swipes, Access Controls: ensure your staff and authorized visitors have easy, hassle-free access to your property via door swipes and access keypads
- Security Systems: protect your property with the latest security systems including motion detection, video surveillance, recording, event notification (via 3G wireless network), etc.
- Cameras, CCTV, DVR: from network-enabled, high resolution IP video surveillance cameras to closed circuit TV and DVR recording, Cabco offers a variety of options from leading manufacturers

SERVICE, SUPPORT, 24/7 MONITORING

Cabco's trained technicians will not only take care of the necessary wiring and installation of your security and access control systems, we provide expert service and support after the sale for added peace of mind. Trust Cabco and its Partners to provide the latest in security and access control technology, plus we offer 24/7 system monitoring.

For the right security and access control system, contact Cabco today!